

Chef & Vendor Terms and Conditions

Independent Contractor Agreement

Effective Date: Upon Account Registration or First Platform Access

Jurisdiction: Republic of Ghana

About This Agreement

eat4me is a technology platform, not a food company or employer. We built software that gives talented home cooks, chefs, and food vendors a marketplace to reach customers who love great food. You cook. We provide the platform, the orders, and the payment infrastructure.

This Agreement sets out clearly what you can expect from us, what we expect from you, and how the relationship works. You are an independent contractor operating your own food business — not an employee of eat4me.

Please read this Agreement carefully before registering. By using the eat4me platform, you agree to be bound by these Terms.

¹. Introduction & Acceptance of Terms

eat4me operates as a technology-enabled marketplace that connects independent chefs and home cooks with customers and delivery partners. eat4me does not prepare, cook, or sell food and does not employ chefs or home cooks.

¹.1 Purpose of the Agreement

These Terms and Conditions ("Terms" or "Agreement") constitute a legally binding agreement between eat4me ("eat4me," "we," "us," or "our") and the individual or business entity registering as a chef, home cook, restaurant, or food vendor on the eat4me platform ("Chef," "Cook," "Vendor," "you," or "your").

1.2 Acceptance of Terms

By registering for an account, completing the onboarding process, listing meals, accepting orders, or otherwise accessing or using the eat4me platform, you:

- Confirm that you have read, understood, and agreed to be bound by these Terms in full;
- Represent and warrant that you have the legal capacity and authority to enter into this Agreement; and
- Agree to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, policies, and guidelines related to food preparation, safety, and business operations in the Republic of Ghana.

If you do not agree to these Terms, you must not register for, access, or use the eat4me platform. eat4me reserves the right to refuse, suspend, or terminate access to the platform for any Chef who does not accept or comply with these Terms.

1.3 Effective Date of the Agreement

These Terms shall become effective on the date the Chef first accepts them electronically during the registration or onboarding process, or on the date the Chef first accesses or uses the eat4me platform — whichever occurs first ("Effective Date"). From the Effective Date, these Terms govern the entire relationship between eat4me and the Chef unless amended or terminated in accordance with the provisions set out herein.

1.4 Independent Contractor Declaration

The Chef expressly acknowledges and agrees that:

- They are entering into this Agreement as an independent contractor operating their own food business, and not as an employee, agent, partner, or representative of eat4me.
- eat4me does not direct, supervise, or control the manner in which the Chef prepares food or manages their kitchen operations.
- The Chef is free to offer their services on other platforms and through other channels simultaneously, provided such activity does not breach these Terms.

This Agreement defines the rights, responsibilities, obligations, and conditions governing the Chef's access to and use of the eat4me platform, including the listing, preparation, and facilitation of sale of food items to customers through the platform.

- eat4me is not responsible for the Chef's tax obligations, regulatory compliance, insurance, or any other obligations arising from the Chef's independent business operations.
- Nothing in this Agreement creates or shall be construed to create an employment, agency, partnership, or joint venture relationship between eat4me and the Chef.

2. Definitions & Interpretation

2.1 Definitions

Unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the meanings set out below:

- "Agreement" means these Chef Terms and Conditions, including any schedules, appendices, policies, or guidelines referenced herein, as amended from time to time.
- "Chef" or "Cook" or "Vendor" means any individual, partnership, business, restaurant, home cook, or food vendor that registers on the eat4me platform to list, prepare, and facilitate the sale of food items to customers.
- "Customer" means any individual or entity that places an order for meals through the eat4me platform.
- "Delivery Partner" or "Rider" means any independent third-party delivery personnel engaged through or associated with eat4me to facilitate the pickup and delivery of orders. Riders are independent contractors and not employees of eat4me or the Chef.
- "eat4me Platform" or "Platform" means the eat4me mobile application, website, admin systems, dashboards, APIs, and all related digital infrastructure operated by eat4me.
- "Order" means a request placed by a Customer through the platform for the purchase of one or more food items from a Chef.
- "Meal" or "Food Item" means any food, beverage, or consumable item listed, prepared, or sold by a Chef through the platform.
- "Commission" means the service fee, percentage, or charge deducted by eat4me from each completed order, as communicated to the Chef from time to time.

- "Settlement" means the transfer of funds to the Chef after deductions for commissions, refunds, penalties, or other applicable charges.

- "Content" means all information, images, descriptions, menus, pricing, branding, text, or materials uploaded or provided by the Chef on the platform.
- "Kitchen Quality Assessment" means eat4me's proprietary internal assessment of a Chef's kitchen environment conducted as a condition of platform onboarding. This assessment is a platform standard only and does not constitute a government inspection, food safety certification, or hygiene permit.
- "Applicable Laws" means all local, national, and regulatory laws, regulations, guidelines, and standards applicable in the Republic of Ghana, including food safety, health, tax, and consumer protection laws.

2.2 Interpretation

In these Terms, unless the context otherwise requires:

- Words in the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.
- References to a person shall include individuals, partnerships, companies, and other legal entities.
- Headings and section titles are for convenience only and shall not affect interpretation.
- The words "including" or "include" shall be deemed to be followed by "without limitation."
- References to any law or regulation include amendments, replacements, or reenactments thereof.

2.3 Precedence

In the event of any inconsistency between these Terms and any guideline, policy, or communication issued by eat4me, these Terms shall prevail unless expressly stated otherwise in writing by eat4me.

3. Eligibility & Onboarding Requirements

3.1 Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible to register and operate as a Chef on the eat4me platform, you must:

- Be at least eighteen (18) years of age and possess full legal capacity to enter into this Agreement;

- Register as an individual or as a legally recognized business entity capable of preparing and facilitating the sale of food;
- Provide accurate, complete, and up-to-date information during the registration and onboarding process;
- Not be prohibited under any Applicable Laws from operating a food service business.

3.2 Kitchen & Food Safety Requirements

As a condition for onboarding and continued participation on the eat4me platform, the Chef must:

- Operate from a clean, safe, and hygienic kitchen environment suitable for food preparation;
- Maintain kitchen standards that are consistent with responsible food preparation practices;
- Ensure that all food is prepared in compliance with food safety, hygiene, and sanitation guidelines applicable in Ghana, whether or not formal government certification has been issued;
- Permit eat4me, where reasonably required, to request evidence of compliance with eat4me's Kitchen Quality Assessment standards, including photos, documentation, or inspection reports.

eat4me reserves the right to approve, suspend, or delist any Chef whose kitchen is deemed unsafe, unhygienic, or unsuitable for food preparation based on eat4me's internal platform standards.

Important: eat4me's Kitchen Quality Assessment is a proprietary platform standard. It does not replace, substitute for, or constitute a government food safety inspection, hygiene permit, or certification issued by the Ghana Food and Drugs Authority (FDA) or any other regulatory body. Chefs are solely responsible for obtaining any government permits, licenses, or certifications required by Applicable Laws.

3.3 Documentation & Verification

During onboarding or at any time thereafter, eat4me may require the Chef to provide:

- Valid government-issued identification (e.g., Ghana Card or Passport);
- Business registration documents (where applicable);

- Food safety or health certificates (where available);
Proof of kitchen location and operational readiness.

Failure to provide requested documentation may result in delayed onboarding, suspension, or termination. eat4me does not guarantee the accuracy or completeness of any documentation submitted and is not responsible for verifying the authenticity of government-issued permits or certifications.

3.4 Approval, Rejection & Ongoing Compliance

- Registration on the eat4me platform does not guarantee approval.
- eat4me reserves the sole discretion to approve or reject any application without obligation to provide reasons.
- Continued access to the platform is subject to ongoing compliance with these Terms and all Applicable Laws.

eat4me may conduct periodic reviews, audits, or checks to ensure continued eligibility based on its internal platform standards.

3.5 Regulatory Compliance — Chef's Sole Responsibility

The Chef is solely and exclusively responsible for:

- Obtaining and maintaining all government permits, food safety certifications, business licenses, and health clearances required under Applicable Laws to operate a food preparation business in Ghana;
- Complying with all requirements of the Ghana Food and Drugs Authority (FDA) and any other applicable regulatory body;
- Ensuring that their kitchen operations comply with all local government, public health, and environmental regulations;
- Notifying eat4me immediately of any regulatory action, permit suspension, or enforcement action taken against the Chef's food business by any government authority.

eat4me shall not be liable for any penalties, fines, enforcement actions, or consequences arising from the Chef's failure to comply with Applicable Laws or obtain required government permits.

4. Scope of Services

4.1 Nature of the eat4me Platform

eat4me operates a technology-enabled marketplace platform that facilitates the listing, discovery, ordering, and delivery of meals prepared by independent chefs and food vendors. eat4me does not own, operate, manage, or control any kitchen, restaurant, or food preparation facility. eat4me does not prepare, cook, package, or sell food and does not employ chefs, home cooks, or food handlers.

4.2 Services Provided by eat4me

Subject to compliance with these Terms, eat4me provides the following technology services to Chefs:

- Access to the eat4me digital platform for listing meals and menus;
- Tools to manage availability, pricing, quantities, and orders;
- Order transmission and coordination between Customers, Chefs, and Delivery Partners;
- Payment processing and settlement facilitation, subject to applicable deductions;
- Customer support and operational coordination, where applicable.

eat4me may modify, suspend, or discontinue any aspect of the platform or services at its discretion, provided such changes do not materially affect outstanding accepted orders.

4.3 Chef's Role & Responsibilities

Chef is solely responsible for:

- Preparing all meals listed on the platform to the standard described;
- Ensuring food quality, hygiene, safety, and compliance with Applicable Laws;
- Accurately representing meals, prices, availability, and preparation times;
- Fulfilling accepted orders in a timely and professional manner;
- All regulatory compliance obligations related to their food business.

eat4me shall not be responsible for the quality, safety, legality, or suitability of any meal prepared by a Chef.

4.4 No Exclusivity

This Agreement does not create any exclusivity obligation. Chefs are free to operate independently and to list or sell meals through other platforms or channels simultaneously, provided such activities do not conflict with these Terms or misuse eat4me's intellectual property or customer data.

4.5 Right to Modify Services eat4me reserves the right to introduce new features, modify or remove existing features, and impose usage limitations or conditions, provided that such changes do not materially affect outstanding accepted orders.

5. Chef Obligations & Responsibilities

5.1 General Obligations

The Chef agrees to perform all obligations under this Agreement with due care, skill, professionalism, and integrity and in a manner that upholds the reputation, standards, and customer experience of the eat4me platform. The Chef shall ensure that all information provided to eat4me is true, accurate, complete, and kept up to date at all times.

5.2 Food Quality, Hygiene & Safety The

Chef shall:

- Prepare all meals in a clean, sanitary, and hygienic environment;
- Use only fresh, safe, and consumable ingredients fit for human consumption;
- Comply with all applicable food safety standards, public health guidelines, and Applicable Laws;
- Ensure proper storage, handling, preparation, and packaging of food;
- Prevent contamination, spoilage, or adulteration of food items;
- Clearly and accurately disclose all ingredients, allergens, and dietary information in meal listings.

The Chef bears full and sole responsibility and liability for the safety, quality, and legal compliance of all meals prepared and sold through the platform. eat4me accepts no liability for any food safety failures, illness, injury, or harm arising from meals prepared by the Chef.

5.3 Allergen Disclosure Obligations The

Chef must:

- Clearly identify and disclose all known allergens present in each meal listed on the platform, including but not limited to nuts, gluten, dairy, shellfish, eggs, and soy;
- Update allergen information immediately if ingredients or preparation methods change;
- Respond promptly and accurately to customer inquiries regarding allergen content made through the platform;
- Never misrepresent a meal as allergen-free unless the Chef has taken all reasonable steps to prevent cross-contamination and can substantiate that claim.

The Chef acknowledges that inaccurate allergen information may cause serious harm to customers and constitutes a material breach of this Agreement, for which the Chef shall bear full liability.

5.4 Kitchen Operations & Compliance The

Chef must:

- Maintain a kitchen that remains fit for food preparation at all times in accordance with Applicable Laws;
- Immediately notify eat4me of any changes to kitchen location, operating conditions, or regulatory status;
- Cooperate with any reasonable request by eat4me for verification of compliance with eat4me's platform standards;
- Immediately cease operations on the platform if the kitchen becomes unsafe, noncompliant, or subject to any government enforcement action;
- Notify eat4me immediately if any regulatory authority inspects, sanctions, or takes action against the Chef's kitchen or food business.

5.5 Menu Accuracy & Availability The

Chef shall:

- Accurately list meal descriptions, ingredients, allergens, portion sizes, prices, and images;
- Clearly indicate meal availability, preparation times, and daily quantities;
- Update availability promptly when meals sell out or become unavailable;
- Honor all accepted orders unless prevented by circumstances beyond reasonable control.

Frequent inaccuracies, stock-outs, or order cancellations may result in penalties, reduced performance ratings, suspension, or delisting.

5.6 Order Preparation & Fulfilment

Upon accepting an Order, the Chef agrees to:

- Prepare the meal within the stated preparation time;
- Ensure meals are packaged securely and appropriately for delivery;
- Be available for timely handover to Delivery Partners;
- Avoid unnecessary delays that may affect food quality or customer satisfaction.

5.7 Conduct & Professional Standards

The Chef shall:

- Treat customers, riders, and eat4me personnel with respect and professionalism at all times;
- Refrain from abusive, discriminatory, threatening, or inappropriate conduct;
- Not engage in fraudulent, misleading, or deceptive practices;
- Not solicit customers to transact outside the eat4me platform, whether directly or indirectly.

5.8 Compliance with Policies & Guidelines

The Chef agrees to comply with all additional policies, operational guidelines, and instructions issued by eat4me from time to time, including but not limited to food standards, delivery procedures, and customer service protocols.

5.9 Indemnity for Breach

The Chef agrees to indemnify and hold harmless eat4me from any loss, claim, damage, liability, or expense arising from the Chef's breach of these obligations, negligence, misconduct, or failure to comply with Applicable Laws.

2. Menu, Pricing & Availability

The Chef is solely responsible for the accuracy, completeness, and legality of all menu information listed on the eat4me platform, including but not limited to:

- Meal names and descriptions;
- Ingredients, allergens, and portion sizes;
- Images, branding, and visual representations;
- Preparation times and availability periods.

All content must be truthful, non-misleading, and reflective of the actual meal prepared and delivered. eat4me does not independently verify the accuracy of Chef-submitted menu content and bears no liability for inaccurate or misleading information provided by the Chef.

6.2 Pricing Responsibility

The Chef shall independently determine the retail price of each meal listed on the platform. Prices must:

- Be inclusive of all costs associated with preparation;
- Be clearly stated and consistently applied;
- Not be altered after an Order has been accepted. eat4me reserves the right to enforce minimum pricing thresholds or pricing guidelines where necessary for platform sustainability and customer experience.

6.3 Availability Controls

The Chef must utilize the platform's tools to manage availability accurately, including turning availability on or off, enabling or disabling specific meal periods, and specifying the number of plates available per meal per day. As Orders are placed, available quantity shall automatically reduce until sold out.

6.4 Stock Management & Sold-Out Meals

The Chef shall ensure that meals listed as available are in fact available for preparation. Listing meals that are unavailable, frequently selling out prematurely, or failing to update quantities may result in order cancellations, customer refunds, penalties, or account restrictions.

².1 Menu Listing & Content Accuracy

6.5 Image Standards & Content Rights

All images uploaded by the Chef must:

- Accurately represent the meal offered;
- Be clear, high-quality, and free from misleading enhancements;
- Not infringe on third-party intellectual property rights.

eat4me reserves the right to remove, replace, enhance, or generate alternative images to maintain platform quality and consistency. Where eat4me generates or sources alternative images for a Chef's listing, eat4me retains ownership of those images.

6.6 Changes & Updates

The Chef may update menus, prices, and availability at any time, provided that changes do not affect Orders already accepted and updates are reflected accurately before Customers place new Orders.

6.7 Consequences of Non-Compliance

Repeated failure to maintain accurate menus, pricing, or availability may result in warnings, penalties, temporary suspension, or permanent removal from the platform.

7. Orders, Fulfilment & Cancellations

7.1 Order Placement & Acceptance

Orders are placed by Customers through the eat4me platform and transmitted electronically to the Chef. An Order shall be deemed accepted once the Chef confirms the Order through the platform or commences preparation. Upon acceptance, the Order becomes binding, and the Chef is obligated to fulfil it in accordance with these Terms.

7.2 Order Preparation & Timelines

Upon accepting an Order, the Chef shall:

- Prepare the meal within the stated or agreed preparation time;
- Ensure the meal meets the listed description, portion size, and quality standards;
- Ensure the meal is ready for pickup at the designated time.

Delays attributable to the Chef that negatively affect food quality or delivery timelines may result in penalties, reduced ratings, or other corrective actions.

7.3 Order Modifications

Once an Order has been accepted, the Chef may not modify prices, portion sizes, or meal components without prior approval from eat4me and the Customer. Any permitted modifications must be communicated promptly through the platform.

7.4 Chef-Initiated Cancellations

Chef-initiated cancellations are strongly discouraged and permitted only in exceptional circumstances, including:

- Unavailability of essential ingredients due to unforeseen events;
- Equipment failure rendering food preparation impossible;
- Health or safety risks affecting food preparation.

Where a Chef initiates a cancellation, eat4me may process a full refund to the Customer, impose penalties or performance deductions, and record the cancellation against the Chef's performance metrics. Frequent or unjustified cancellations may result in suspension or termination.

7.5 Customer-Initiated Cancellations & Refunds

Customer-initiated cancellations and refunds shall be handled in accordance with eat4me's customer refund and cancellation policies, as updated from time to time. Where a cancellation or refund is attributable to the Chef's failure, including inaccurate listings, late preparation, or food quality issues, the Chef may bear the associated costs through deductions from future settlements.

7.6 Failure to Fulfil Orders

Failure to prepare or deliver an accepted Order without valid justification constitutes a material breach of these Terms. eat4me reserves the right to refund the Customer in full or in part, withhold payments due to the Chef, apply penalties or chargebacks, and suspend or permanently delist the Chef.

7.7 Record Keeping & Audit

The Chef agrees that eat4me may maintain records of Orders, cancellations, fulfilment rates, and related performance data for operational, quality control, and dispute resolution purposes. eat4me's records shall serve as primary reference in resolving disputes.

8. Delivery & Rider Coordination

8.1 Role of Delivery Partners

Delivery services on the eat4me platform are facilitated through independent third-party delivery partners ("Riders"). Riders are independent contractors and are not employees or agents of eat4me or of the Chef. eat4me may assign Riders to Orders or facilitate rider coordination but does not guarantee delivery times and shall not be responsible for delays beyond its reasonable control.

8.2 Chef Responsibilities During Pickup

The Chef shall:

- Ensure Orders are prepared, packaged, and ready for pickup at the agreed time;
- Verify Order details before handover to the Rider;
- Package meals securely to preserve food quality during transit;
- Handover meals promptly upon the Rider's arrival.

Delays caused by the Chef during pickup may result in reduced food quality and customer dissatisfaction, for which the Chef shall bear responsibility.

8.3 Packaging Standards

The Chef is responsible for using appropriate food-grade packaging, preventing spillage, leakage, contamination, or damage, and clearly labeling Orders where required. eat4me may issue packaging standards or guidelines which the Chef must comply with. The cost of packaging is the Chef's sole responsibility unless otherwise agreed in writing.

8.4 Transfer of Responsibility

Responsibility for the Order shall transfer from the Chef to the Rider at the point of successful handover. However, the Chef shall remain responsible for any issues arising from improper preparation, packaging, or inaccurate allergen information regardless of when such issues become apparent.

8.5 Delays & Delivery Issues

Where delivery delays occur, delays attributable to the Chef (late preparation, unavailability) may result in penalties or refunds. Delays attributable to Riders shall be addressed in accordance with eat4me's delivery policies. The Chef shall cooperate in resolving delivery-related issues.

8.6 Failed Pickups

If a Rider is unable to collect an Order due to the Chef's unavailability or failure to prepare the meal, eat4me may cancel the Order and apply penalties to the Chef's account.

8.7 No Direct Contract with Riders

The Chef shall not independently contract, engage, solicit, or make payment arrangements with Riders assigned through the eat4me platform without eat4me's prior written consent.

9. Payments, Commissions & Settlements

9.1 Payment Processing

eat4me shall facilitate payment collection from Customers on behalf of the Chef through approved payment methods available on the platform. All payments collected shall be processed through eat4me's designated payment systems before settlement to the Chef, subject to applicable deductions in accordance with these Terms.

9.2 Service Fees & Commissions

In consideration for the technology services and marketplace access provided by eat4me, the Chef agrees that eat4me shall deduct a service fee or commission from each completed Order. The applicable commission structure, rates, or fees shall be:

- Communicated to the Chef separately during onboarding or through official channels;
- Subject to periodic review and adjustment by eat4me with reasonable notice to the Chef;
- Binding upon acceptance by the Chef, whether electronically or by continued use of the platform.

eat4me is not obligated to publicly disclose commission rates on the platform. Commission rates represent eat4me's compensation for providing technology infrastructure, marketing, customer acquisition, payment processing, and operational support.

9.3 Settlements & Payouts

Settlements to the Chef shall be made on a periodic basis as determined by eat4me and communicated during onboarding or through official channels. Settlement amounts may be subject to deductions for service fees or commissions, customer refunds or chargebacks, penalties arising from Order cancellations or non-fulfilment, and applicable taxes or statutory deductions.

9.4 Payment Accuracy & Verification

The Chef is responsible for ensuring that all payment details provided (including mobile money or bank account information) are accurate and up to date. eat4me shall not be liable for delays or losses resulting from incorrect or outdated payment information provided by the Chef.

9.5 Refunds & Adjustments eat4me reserves the right to process refunds or partial refunds to Customers in accordance with its refund policies. Where a refund is attributable to the Chef's actions or omissions — including inaccurate listings, food quality failures, late preparation, or order cancellations — the refunded amount may be deducted from the Chef's future settlements.

9.6 Taxes & Statutory Obligations

The Chef is solely responsible for declaring income earned through the eat4me platform, paying all applicable taxes, levies, or statutory charges, and complying with all tax-related laws and regulations in Ghana. eat4me shall not be responsible for the Chef's tax obligations. eat4me may issue settlement records to assist with tax declarations but does not provide tax advice.

9.7 Right to Withhold Payments eat4me reserves the right to withhold or delay settlements where there is an ongoing investigation into suspected fraud or breach, there are unresolved disputes or chargebacks, or required documentation or verification is outstanding. Withheld payments shall be released upon resolution of the relevant matter, subject to applicable deductions.

3. Ratings, Reviews & Performance Monitoring

Chefs acknowledge that eat4me allows customers to rate and review meals and services.

Feedback provided by customers is intended to improve service quality, inform other users, and maintain platform standards.

10.2 Performance Metrics

The platform monitors key performance indicators (KPIs) including, but not limited to, order completion rate, food quality ratings, customer satisfaction scores, timeliness of preparation, and adherence to hygiene and safety standards. Chefs are expected to maintain satisfactory performance levels. Persistent negative feedback, low ratings, or repeated complaints may result in corrective action, suspension, or permanent removal from the platform.

10.3 Monitoring & Evaluation eat4me reserves the right to monitor chef activity, uploaded content, and meal quality through audits, inspections, or review of customer complaints. Chefs must cooperate with any reasonable requests for information or compliance checks. eat4me's monitoring activities are conducted as a platform quality measure and do not constitute supervision or control of the Chef's independent operations.

10.4 Right to Respond

Chefs may respond to customer reviews and provide clarifications, but responses must remain professional, factual, and respectful. Inappropriate, offensive, or defamatory responses may result in penalties, including account suspension. eat4me does not endorse, verify, or take responsibility for Chef responses to reviews.

10.5 Continuous Improvement

Ratings and reviews are used by eat4me to guide training opportunities, promotional eligibility, and platform incentives. Chefs are encouraged to proactively address feedback and maintain service excellence to maximize performance metrics and customer reach.

3.1 Customer Feedback

4. Platform Use & Conduct accordance with these Terms. Chefs must ensure that all information submitted, including menu details, pricing, and availability, is accurate, complete, and up-to-date. Chefs must operate their accounts in accordance with these Terms and all applicable laws, regulations, and platform guidelines.

11.2 Prohibited Activities

Chefs shall not, under any circumstances:

- Engage in fraudulent or deceptive practices, including misrepresentation of meals, ingredients, allergens, or service standards;
- Attempt to manipulate ratings, reviews, or performance metrics on the platform;
- Harass, threaten, or engage in abusive communication with customers, other chefs, riders, or eat4me staff;
- Access, copy, distribute, or use eat4me data, systems, or content in any unauthorized manner;
- Facilitate or promote illegal activities, including selling unauthorized, unsafe, or prohibited food items;
- Solicit customers to transact outside the eat4me platform, whether directly, through social media, or by any other means;
- Use eat4me's brand, customer data, or platform exposure to build a competing service.

11.3 Protection of eat4me Systems and Data

Chefs must take all reasonable measures to protect their account credentials and login information. Chefs must immediately notify eat4me of any security breach or unauthorized access related to their account. Chefs acknowledge that customer information, operational metrics, and proprietary platform content remain the property of eat4me and must not be used for personal or third-party commercial purposes without explicit written consent.

⁴.1 Acceptable Use of the Platform

Chefs are granted a limited, non-exclusive, and revocable right to access and use the eat4me platform solely for the purpose of listing meals and providing food services to customers in

11.4 Compliance and Cooperation

Chefs agree to cooperate with eat4me in any investigation relating to suspected breaches, misuse, or misconduct. Any violation of this Section may result in immediate suspension or termination of the Chef's account, as well as potential legal action to recover damages suffered by eat4me or affected customers.

12. Intellectual Property & Content Rights

12.1 Ownership of eat4me Platform and Brand

All intellectual property rights, including but not limited to trademarks, logos, trade names, designs, software, and content on the eat4me platform, remain the exclusive property of eat4me or its licensors. Chefs acknowledge that no ownership rights or licenses are granted to use eat4me's intellectual property beyond what is expressly provided in these Terms.

12.2 License to Use Chef-Provided Content

By submitting images, menus, descriptions, or other content to the eat4me platform, Chefs grant eat4me a worldwide, royalty-free, non-exclusive, sublicensable license to use, reproduce, display, distribute, and promote such content for the purposes of operating, marketing, and improving the platform. This license continues after the Chef's account is terminated solely for archival, legal, or historical purposes.

Chefs must ensure that all content provided is original, accurate, lawful, and does not infringe upon the rights of any third party, including copyrights, trademarks, or privacy rights. The Chef retains ownership of original content they submit but grants eat4me the license described above.

12.3 Restrictions on Misuse of Brand Assets

Chefs shall not use the eat4me brand, logo, or other proprietary assets in any advertising, promotion, or commercial activity outside the platform without prior written consent. Any unauthorized use of eat4me intellectual property may result in immediate termination of access and legal action.

12.4 Moral and Legal Responsibility

Chefs are responsible for ensuring that their content does not contain offensive, misleading, or illegal material. eat4me reserves the right to remove or modify any content that violates these Terms or is deemed inappropriate, without prior notice to the Chef.

5. Confidentiality & Data Protection

Chefs acknowledge that, in the course of using the eat4me platform, they may have access to confidential information, including but not limited to:

- Customer personal details (names, addresses, phone numbers, dietary preferences, order history);
- Operational data, order history, and platform metrics;
- Business strategies, promotions, commission structures, or internal policies of eat4me.

All such information is considered the exclusive property of eat4me and must be treated as strictly confidential.

13.2 Obligations of Chefs

Chefs shall not disclose, share, or use confidential information for any purpose outside the scope of providing services on the eat4me platform. Confidential information may only be disclosed to third parties with prior written consent from eat4me or if required by law. Chefs must implement reasonable security measures to protect confidential information from unauthorized access, loss, or misuse.

13.3 Data Protection & Privacy Compliance

Chefs must comply with all applicable data protection and privacy laws in Ghana, including the Data Protection Act 2012, in the handling of any customer data accessed through the platform. Customer data must be used solely for fulfilling orders placed through the platform and for no other purpose. Chefs shall promptly report any suspected data breach or unauthorized access involving customer information to eat4me.

⁵ .1 Confidential Information

13.4 Prohibition on Unauthorized Customer Contact

Chefs are strictly prohibited from using customer contact information obtained through the platform to solicit orders, promote services, or make contact outside of the eat4me platform, whether for commercial or personal purposes. Any such unauthorized contact constitutes a material breach of this Agreement and may result in immediate termination and legal action.

13.5 Duration of Confidentiality

The obligations of confidentiality survive the termination or suspension of the Chef's account and remain in effect indefinitely unless released in writing by eat4me.

13.6 Legal Consequences

Any breach of confidentiality may result in immediate suspension or termination, civil liability, or legal action, including claims for damages and injunctive relief.

14. Food Safety, Liability & Indemnity

14.1 Chef's Sole Liability for Food Safety and Quality

Chefs are solely and exclusively responsible for ensuring that all meals prepared and served through the eat4me platform comply with applicable health, safety, and hygiene standards, including regulations set by the Ghana Food and Drugs Authority (FDA) or any relevant local authority. This responsibility includes:

- Maintaining a kitchen fit for food preparation at all times;
- Ensuring proper food storage, handling, and preparation practices to prevent contamination, spoilage, or harm to customers;
- Ensuring that meals meet the descriptions, ingredients, and dietary specifications provided on the platform;
- Accurately and fully disclosing all allergens present in each meal.

14.2 eat4me's Assessment Does Not Transfer Liability

The Chef acknowledges that eat4me's Kitchen Quality Assessment is a proprietary platform standard conducted at a single point in time. Passing this assessment does not transfer any food safety liability to eat4me. eat4me does not continuously monitor kitchen conditions and is not responsible for any food safety failures occurring after the initial assessment. The Chef remains solely liable for maintaining food safety standards at all times.

14.3 Indemnification of eat4me Against Claims

Chefs agree to fully indemnify, defend, and hold harmless eat4me, its affiliates, directors, officers, employees, and agents from any and all claims, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, fines, penalties, or expenses (including legal fees) arising from:

- Foodborne illnesses, allergic reactions, or other health issues resulting from meals prepared by the Chef;
- Inaccurate allergen information or misleading meal descriptions;
- Breach of these Terms or Applicable Laws;
- Negligence, misrepresentation, or misconduct in the preparation, packaging, or handling of meals;
- Any regulatory enforcement action arising from the Chef's failure to comply with food safety laws.

This indemnification obligation survives the termination or suspension of the Chef's account.

14.4 Limitation of eat4me's Liability eat4me provides the platform as a technology facilitator and does not assume responsibility for the quality, safety, legality, or suitability of meals prepared by Chefs. eat4me shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, or punitive damages arising from Chef-provided meals, including but not limited to health issues, property damage, or financial loss. The liability of eat4me, to the fullest extent permitted by law, is limited to facilitating payments and providing access to the platform technology.

14.5 Obligation to Cooperate

Chefs must cooperate fully with eat4me in investigating any claims or complaints related to food safety, quality, or customer disputes, including providing documentation, photographs, and access to relevant records. Failure to cooperate may be treated as a material breach of this Agreement.

15. Suspension, Termination & Delisting

15.1 Grounds for Suspension or Termination eat4me reserves the right to suspend or terminate a Chef's account, at its sole discretion, for reasons including but not limited to:

- Breach of any provision of these Terms and Conditions;
- Repeated poor performance, low ratings, or consistent customer complaints;
- Failure to maintain proper food safety, hygiene, or kitchen standards;
- Unauthorized use of the platform, fraudulent activities, or misrepresentation;
- Non-cooperation during investigations or audits conducted by eat4me;
- Any regulatory enforcement action against the Chef's food business by a government authority;
- Solicitation of customers outside the platform.

15.2 Immediate Termination Scenarios

Account suspension or immediate termination may occur without prior notice in cases of:

- Severe food safety violations or incidents causing customer harm;
- Engaging in illegal, abusive, or unethical behavior;
- Deliberate falsification of content, menus, allergen information, or credentials;
- Unauthorized sharing or misuse of eat4me intellectual property or customer data;
- Any action deemed by eat4me to present an immediate risk to customers, the platform, or its reputation.

15.3 Effects of Termination on Pending Orders and Payments

Upon suspension or termination, Chefs will no longer have access to the platform or its services. Pending orders will be handled according to eat4me's operational policies and the platform may reassign such orders to other Chefs to ensure service continuity. Payments for completed orders prior to termination will be processed according to the platform's payment schedule, subject to any deductions or adjustments for refunds, cancellations, or disputes. Chefs are responsible for resolving any outstanding obligations until all pending matters are closed.

15.4 Delisting from the Platform

Chefs whose accounts are terminated or delisted may be prohibited from re-registering or using the platform in the future, depending on the severity of the breach or violation. eat4me reserves the right to permanently remove any Chef's profile, menus, or content from the platform without prior notice.

15.5 Right to Appeal

Chefs may contact eat4me support to seek clarification or appeal a suspension or termination decision. eat4me will endeavor to respond to appeal requests within fourteen (14) business days of receipt. eat4me reserves the right to uphold, modify, or reverse its decision based on its investigation.

16. Dispute Resolution

16.1 Internal Dispute Resolution Process

Chefs agree to first raise any disputes, concerns, or complaints directly with eat4me through the designated support channels. eat4me will make reasonable efforts to investigate and resolve disputes fairly, transparently, and promptly. Chefs are expected to provide full and accurate information during the resolution process and cooperate with any requests for documentation or clarification.

16.2 Escalation Procedures

If a dispute cannot be resolved internally within a reasonable timeframe, Chefs may escalate the matter for formal review by the eat4me management team. Both parties agree to engage in good faith discussions and consider mediation to reach an amicable resolution before pursuing legal action.

16.3 Mandatory Internal Resolution Before Legal Proceedings

Before initiating any legal proceedings, Chefs must first exhaust eat4me's internal complaint resolution process outlined in Section 16.1. eat4me reserves the right to require mediation or arbitration as a precondition to any court proceedings, where permitted by applicable Ghanaian law.

16.4 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms and Conditions and any disputes arising from them shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Ghana. Chefs agree that any legal proceedings or claims not resolved through internal resolution or mediation shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Ghana. By agreeing to these Terms, Chefs waive any objection to jurisdiction and venue in Ghana.

6. Amendments & Updates

17.2 Notification Methods

Chefs will be notified of material changes to the Terms through official communication channels, including email, in-app notifications, or the eat4me website. While eat4me makes reasonable efforts to provide advance notice, Chefs acknowledge that urgent updates may be applied immediately to ensure compliance with law, safety, or operational needs.

17.3 Continued Use as Acceptance

Continued use of the eat4me platform after the posting or notification of updated Terms constitutes acceptance of, and agreement to be bound by, the revised Terms. Chefs who do not agree with any updates must immediately discontinue use of the platform and may request account termination in accordance with Section 15.

17.4 Binding Effect

Updated Terms are legally binding on all registered Chefs and take precedence over prior versions once posted or communicated.

18. Force Majeure

6 .1 Right of eat4me to Update Terms

eat4me reserves the right to modify, amend, or update these Terms and Conditions at any time, at its sole discretion, to reflect changes in platform operations, legal requirements, or business practices. Such updates may include revisions to fees, commission structures, operational procedures, platform functionality, or Chef obligations.

18.1 Definition of Force Majeure

Neither eat4me nor Chefs shall be held liable or responsible for any failure or delay in performing their obligations under these Terms when such failure or delay is caused by events beyond their reasonable control.

18.2 Examples of Force Majeure Events

- Natural disasters (floods, earthquakes, storms)
- Fire, explosion, or other physical damage to facilities
- Power outages, internet, or communication failures
- Strikes, labor disputes, or civil unrest
- Government actions, regulations, or emergency restrictions
- Epidemics, pandemics, or other public health emergencies
- Any other unforeseen event outside the reasonable control of the affected party

18.3 Notification and Mitigation

The affected party must promptly notify the other party of the occurrence of a force majeure event and use reasonable efforts to mitigate its impact. Chefs are encouraged to communicate any delays in meal preparation or platform operations resulting from force majeure events as soon as reasonably practicable.

18.4 Effect on Obligations

Obligations affected by a force majeure event shall be suspended for the duration of the event. If a force majeure event continues for an extended period, eat4me reserves the right to take necessary actions, including temporary suspension or termination of affected accounts, without liability.

18.5 Limitation of Liability

Neither eat4me nor Chefs shall be liable for any direct or indirect losses, damages, or claims resulting from delays or failures caused by force majeure events.

19. Notices & Communication

19.1 Official Communication Channels

All official notices, updates, or communications from eat4me to Chefs shall be delivered through:

- Registered email address provided during Chef registration;
- In-app notifications via the eat4me platform;
- Official eat4me website or social media accounts, where applicable.

Communications sent through these channels shall be deemed effective upon delivery or posting.

19.2 Responsibility to Keep Contact Details Updated

Chefs are responsible for maintaining accurate and up-to-date contact information, including email addresses, phone numbers, and kitchen location details. eat4me shall not be held liable for any failure to receive notices due to outdated or incorrect contact information provided by the Chef.

19.3 Method of Chef Communication

Chefs may communicate with eat4me through the designated support channels for inquiries, disputes, or operational concerns. All communications from Chefs should be professional, clear, and submitted through official channels to ensure proper tracking and resolution.

19.4 Acknowledgment

By registering on the platform, Chefs acknowledge and accept that notices delivered through the official channels listed in Section 19.1 constitute legally valid communication under these Terms.

20. Miscellaneous & General Provisions

20.1 Severability

If any provision of these Terms and Conditions is found to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be severed from the Agreement. The remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect and remain binding on the parties.

20.2 Waiver

Failure or delay by eat4me to enforce any right, provision, or term under these Terms shall not constitute a waiver of that right or provision. Any waiver must be explicitly stated in writing and signed by an authorized representative of eat4me to be effective.

20.3 Entire Agreement

These Terms and Conditions, together with any additional policies, guidelines, or agreements referenced herein, constitute the entire agreement between the Chef and eat4me regarding the use of the platform. They supersede all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, or representations, whether written or oral, relating to the subject matter of these Terms.

20.4 No Third-Party Beneficiaries

Except as expressly provided, these Terms are intended solely for the benefit of eat4me and the Chef and do not create any rights or benefits for third parties, including customers or delivery riders.

20.5 Survival of Obligations

Provisions relating to confidentiality, indemnification, intellectual property, food safety liability, dispute resolution, and limitation of liability shall survive the termination, suspension, or expiration of a Chef's account and remain in full force indefinitely.

20.6 Assignment

Chefs may not assign, transfer, or delegate their rights or obligations under these Terms without prior written consent from eat4me. eat4me may assign, transfer, or delegate its rights and obligations at its sole discretion, including in the event of a business restructuring, merger, or acquisition.

20.7 Headings

Section headings are included for convenience only and do not affect the interpretation or scope of the provisions.

Platform Disclaimer

eat4me is a technology marketplace platform that provides independent chefs, home cooks, and food vendors with access to a digital marketplace. eat4me does not prepare, cook, handle, or take responsibility for the production of any food listed on this platform.

All Chefs and Vendors operate as independent contractors and are individually and solely responsible for compliance with applicable food safety laws and regulations in their jurisdiction, including any permits or certifications required by the Ghana Food and Drugs Authority or any other regulatory body.

eat4me's Kitchen Quality Assessment is a proprietary internal platform standard conducted at the time of onboarding. It does not constitute a government food safety certification, hygiene permit, or regulatory inspection, and does not transfer any food safety liability to eat4me. eat4me does not continuously monitor kitchen conditions after the initial assessment.

eat4me does not employ delivery riders. Riders are independent contractors whose conduct and performance are not the responsibility of eat4me.
